

Position: University Intern, Web2.0 Federal Market Analyst

Mission:

1. Free Learning Program to become certified as an Oracle Partner Network [OPN] Pre-sales, Sales, and Service Representative for your chosen Technology Specialization: Oracle 11g, Data Warehouse, Security Features, or your choice from 40+ other OPN Specialized Certifications.
2. Learn how to use DatabaseVisions marketing assets to:
 - a. Identify and Qualify Vendors for potential teaming agreements
 - b. Identify and Qualify key Prospects to connect with in the Federal Market Place
3. Create a Web 2.0 marketing strategy [communication campaign] using word processing, spreadsheets, database, multi media, and social-media tools to express DatabaseVisions value position to Teaming Partners, Staff, and Federal Market Place.
4. Execute Web2.0 marketing strategy with oversight of DatabaseVisions Managing Consultant.

Growth Potential: Potential for Marketing Analyst and / or Java Developer, Web Developer Position

Assignment Prerequisites:

- a. University Degree Programs preferred: Information Technology, Business Administration, Computer Science
- b. A dual competency individual: able to learn Oracle Technology concepts, able to communicate value of Oracle technology in Web 2.0 context, able to learn Web 2.0 Development and Java Technology.
- c. Open minded to be introduced to AFCEA, an important non-profit association for market research purposes

Key Benefits:

1. Real world experience in Federal Marketplace working for small business that serves highly classified, mission-critical programs
2. OPN Specialization
3. Work from home, organize professional goals, formulate Plan of Action and Milestones [POAM] to achieve goals

Contact us today at:
Phone: 703-855-7260
Email: info@databasevisions.com